If these customers have already bought an e-book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a sales page for the new book, but don't embody a price on that page. Instead, add plenty of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out costs by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with different costs on every page. Be sure your sales copy is strictly the same on each web page, and contains your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum worth is.
