Do that by making a sales page for the new guide, but don't embrace a worth on that page. Instead, add a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out costs by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with different costs on each page. Make certain your gross sales copy is strictly the similar on every page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum worth is.

In the end, for those who've written a e-book that solves a downside or presents a brand new technique, your book will herald both visitors and profits.
